

UNUSUAL PHOTOGRAPHS OF THE AIRSHIP R-38 OR SZ-2.
 Above—Inside of the huge gas bag, 698 feet long, with a diameter of 85 feet and holding 2,250,000 cubic feet of gas. The giant craft is nearing completion in England and will sail over in July or August.
 At right—Closeup of the wing machinery car of the R-38, showing one of the engines.
 Photo Underwood & Underwood.

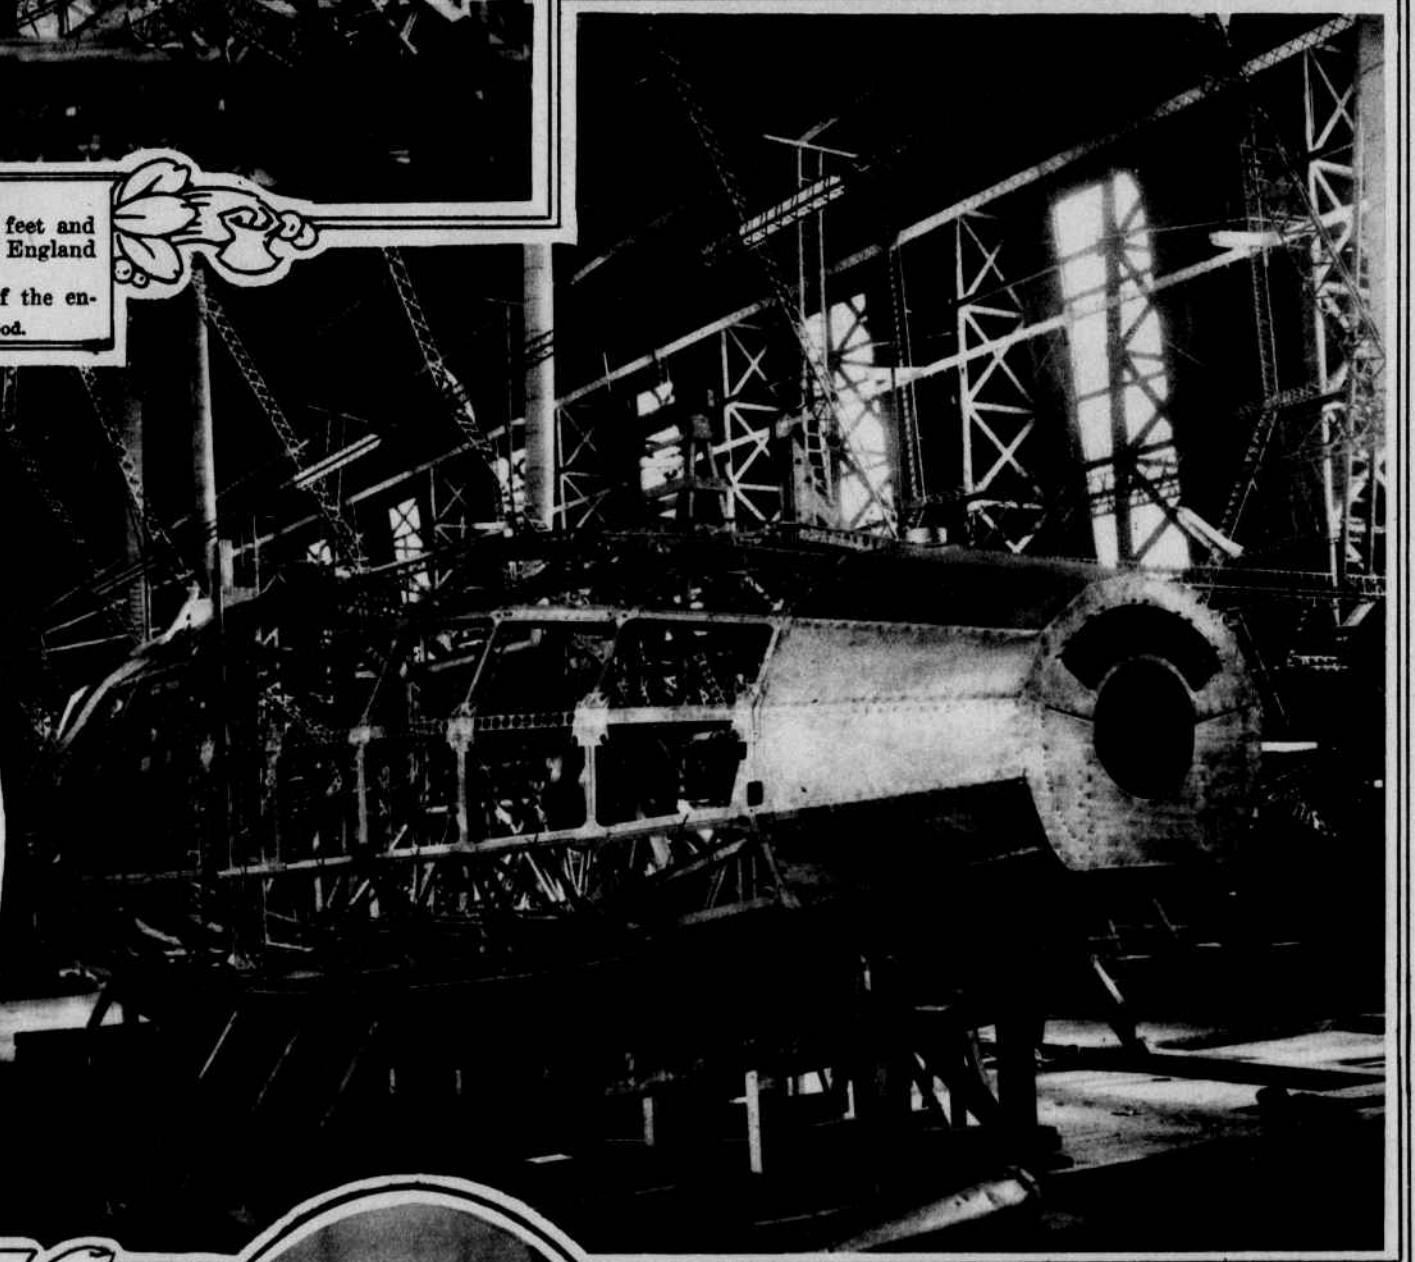

A bad spill in the Household Brigade Steeplechase at Hawthorne Hill, England, recently. Photo shows Aileen Aron literally standing on her head at the open ditch jump. The Royal Horse Guards rider escaped unhurt.
 Underwood & Underwood.

President Harding throwing the first ball at the opening game of the American League in Washington. Gen. Pershing hoisted the flag just before the game.
 Keystone View.

New York baseball fans exceeding 40,000 attended the season's opening game at the Polo Grounds. Picture shows Babe Ruth and Miller Huggins, manager of the Yankees, with the huge floral horseshoe given by the enthusiasts.
 International.

Spring styles as displayed at the races at Auteuil, France. Note that the mannikins showing the new gowns are smoking cigarettes.
 Copyright, Kadel & Herbert.

Two stunning spring gowns on display at the races at Auteuil, France, where novelties in women's dress attract almost as much attention as the horses.
 Copyright, Kadel & Herbert.